0.1.1 Zusammenfassung

On 2006-01-31, Mr. Bush announced a 22 per cent increase on research on general alternative energy sources and on new sources of fuel for cars. This statement contradicts Bush's earlier announcements, which indicated that Bush searched for new supplies of old energy sources.

It remains questionable whether this new stance will manifest. But it is definitely a ray of hope on the horizon that the note of Bush's change in attitude was included in the State of the Union address.
